Enter your full representation here:

There is an omission made in error by Tendring District Council regarding failure to include much of the Coastal Protection belt which surrounds Brightlingsea in the Draft Local Plan. This error relates to the Brightlingsea Local Plan Map and the Policy Map for West Tendring which also shows Brightlingsea.

To correct this problem both maps need to be amended to reflect the correct land designation. That being; to revise the Two Brightlingsea Maps to reinstate the Classification of Coastal Protection Belt to the same as is in the Current 2007 adopted Plan.

The Chief Executive Officer, Head of Planning Officer, Local Plan Policy Officers and Councillors have acknowledged this error and are proposing to include this issue in the proposed changes that are to be submitted to the Inspector in order to address these concerns.

However because previous representations have been made regarding this necessary correction this is why I am making this objection that this has not already been undertaken.

If your representation is more than 100 words, please provide a brief summary here:

Please see above

Please specify the changes needed to be made to make the Plan sound / legally compliant

Make sure that this time the Maps are correct and that they do show the real Coastal Protection Belt area.

Revise the two Brightlingsea Maps to the same that is in the current 2007 adopted plan.

ensure that the Land adjacent to the Ancient Woodlands (Wicks and Lodge wood) located next to Lodge Lane, Brightlingsea is protected by this classification as nothing on this land has changed for it to be reclassified any different to the 2007 adopted plan.
